MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, Sept. 29.—The second day's sport at "Turi Headquarters" brought out a big crowd. Only a fair card was dished out, the Fairview, a mile and a sixteenth jaunt over the hill, being the feature. Wild Thyme, Rostand, Daisy Green and Payne were carded to meet in this event. The track had dried out to-day was in first-class condition.

SECOND RACE. There's a whole lot of trouble over in Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, at Conselyea and Lorimer streets, Williams A. Frank Coates, for years the organist and choir leader, has resigned, and with him several of the young women of the church choir. What it was all about is being kept a close secret by all those who know anything about it.

Rev. William G. Ivie, the rector of the church, refuses absolutely to even Sneer, Salett and Donnelly.

VAN WORMERS SPARE MOTHER TRYING SCENE

DANNEMORA. N. Y. Sept. 29 .- Mrs. Estelle Van Wormer went to Clinton Prison this afternoon to see her three stepsons and ask them if there was any last wish they would like executed before being put to death for the murder of their uncle.

The Van Wormer boys spared their mother a trying scene. They said neither they nor she could unrergo the ordeal. The message from the stepmother was carried to the boys by Father Belanger. When he told Mrs Van Wormer what the boys said she started back to Kinderhook with two women friends who had accompanied her to the prison.

Easy Boss and Other Republicans Advocate Dropping Both Him and Fornes If They Persist in Their Intention to Accept an Indorsement from Tammany Hall.

M'LAUGHLIN PREPARES TO FIGHT, BUT WON'T BOLT IF HE LOSES.

Grout Shows His Displeasure with Republican Interference by Disregarding Their Protests to His Consenting to Have His Name Among Wigwam's Candidates.

The Republican organization will not consent to Edward M. Grout and Charles V. Fornes remaining on the Fusion ticket if they accept nominations from Tammany Hall.

This decision is likely to cause a serious split in the Fusion ranks. Senator Platt and the Republican leaders wish them to be dropped if they accept a Tammany nomination.

R. Fulton Cutting, Presi -t of the Citizens' Union, believes that the running of Mr. Grout and Mr. Fornes on both tickets will result in benefit to Mayor Low and will probably fight any attempt to force them off the ticket unless the Mayor should ask him to fall in line with the Republican

The Fusion leaders went to the extent of calling in former Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff. The political wisdom of this is a matter of doubt among men familiar with the situation. Mr. Grout is a Democrat and it was not pleasant to him to have the Republican boss of Brooklyn try to tell him what he ought to do.
